What did you do this weekend?

Zip-line Treetop Tours are now open in Lincoln, New Hampshire, just 2 hours north of Boston.

Ride 7 ziplines, totaling up to 2000 feet long, multiple suspension "Burma" bridges and treetop platforms from 30' to 80' off the forest floor. Take in the beautiful foliage and views of Franconia Notch. Walk through "Tree Walk Village," 4 platforms connected by ropes bridges. Professionally trained, ACCT certified, friendly guides orient you to the exhilarating world of the zip-line challenge course. So go ahead, step off the platform, and say, "What did you do this weekend?"

Price will be going up to $85/pp on 9/29/06. Come join us for a premier outdoor adventure, the first of its kind in New England. The tour will take about 2 ½ hours. Ages 10 y.o. to 99 are welcome, weight between 70 - 240 lbs. as well.

See us late October on Channel 9 New Hampshire Chronicle. Featured in the Boston Globe on 9/24/06.

This will appeal to sightseers and thrill-seekers alike. "Like parachuting without the uncertainty," Conde Naste Traveler writes.

"Tourists with a taste for adrenaline are getting a bird's eye view in a new attraction that sends them zipping from tree to tree on a series of high-wire cables and rope bridges," writes the Assoc. Press/MSNBC.

Off-road Summer Safari tours, 6-wheel drive modified military vehicles, are running year-round. Schedule runs 11, 1, 3, 5 and 7 pm. Cost is $34/pp. Kids 6 y.o. and under are 1/2 price with a paying adult.

Hope to see you soon in the White Mountains!
